- One METERTOOL HCW for all Kamstrup ultrasonic meters, modules and sensors

- Intuitive and easy-to-use

- Multiple innovative advantages and smart features
Adapt meters to suit your requirements

METERTOOL HCW is an intelligent and easy-to-use application developed specifically for programming and configuration of Kamstrup HCW (heat, cooling and water) meters, modules and sensors.

All that is needed, besides METERTOOL HCW, is an infrared (IR) optical eye to start configuring HCW meters *.

The free application can easily be installed on most PCs and can be obtained by completing a short registration form on Kamstrup's website.

To connect to a meter, just disable the IR lock, place the IR head correctly on the meter, and press Connect.

The HCW meter is now ready to be configured.

* Other communication links might be necessary for modules or flow sensors

 IR lock only available on newer models
